				over the age of 18 who are not receiving title IV-E.
8	Include all children who are in the placement, care, or supervision responsibility of the title IV-B/E agency that are on "trial home visits" (CWPM 1.3).	3	For children placed in the home they were removed from and who are still under the agency's responsibility for placement and care, the State's policy is that the agency must review/make a decision within 90 days. At that time they either continue care and placement or request the courts to discharge them from care and placement responsibility.	Children's Bureau will review the data for accuracy of reporting records of children placed in the home they were removed from while under the agency's responsibility for placement and care.
Adoption Population
11	For the purposes of adoption reporting, data are required to be transmitted by the title IV-E agency ... on all adopted children for whom the agency is providing adoption assistance (either ongoing or for nonrecurring expenses), care or services directly or by contract or agreement with other private or public agencies. (45 CFR 1355.40(a)(3)).	2	Program Code mwadoptz The state technical team indicated that private agency adoptions are not included in the AFCARS report. The extraction code requires that the selected child have a custody record with an outcome equal to "adoption."	Program Code 1) Modify the extraction logic to identify all adoptions the agency has involvement with whether the private agency is in-state or out-of-state, and if only non-recurring costs are paid.	Code 1) 11/2015	Program Code 1) CB, 9/2015 : It is not clear where in the program code this correction was made. Also, the State has not provided its plan to ensure that private agency adoptions in which there is state agency involvement are entered into the system.
Technical Requirements

	the last day of the reporting period (45 CFR 1355.40(b)(1)): For foster care information [subsequent files], the child-specific data to be transmitted must reflect the data in the information system when the data are extracted. (45 CFR 1355.40(b)(2)).		Some information is maintained as history. This is true of legal data, court hearings, TPR history, custody, and placement data. However, there are some items that are not (i.e., diagnosed conditions). Subsequent files may not accurately reflect the events/circumstances of a case. The test cases reflect data that appears to be overwritten. As noted in GR12, not all elements have the report period associated with them and therefore "future" information could be included in a file that is resubmitted for a prior report period.	check for the report period being selected and identity events that occurred prior to the end of that report period. Data Quality - Subsequent files Children's Bureau will review the foster care element extraction routine and the state's data for accuracy.		the extract logic, it should be able to be completed in 2014/2015.
14	The data must be extracted from the data system as of the last day of the reporting period. (45 CFR 1355.40(b)(1)): Adoption data are to be reported during the reporting period in which the adoption is legalized or, at the title IV-E agency's option, in the following reporting period if the adoption is legalized within the last 60 days of the reporting period. For a semi-annual period in which no adoptions have been legalized, the title IV-E agency must report such an occurrence.(45 CFR 355.40(b)(3)).	2	Program Code mwardopdz Regular AD Files The state is only reporting adoptions with a finalization date that occurred in the report period being reported. If the adoption occurred in one report period (i.e., the "A" period) but was entered by the caseworker after the end of the report period, the program code would not extract and report the adoption record in the "B" period. For subsequent AD file reporting since the extraction code only checks on the date of the adoption, it will be included correctly in a subsequent submission. However, it appears the program will incorrectly use the current data rather than the data at the time of the adoption.	Program Code - Regular 1) Identify a method to identify adoption records that were entered after the end of a report period in order to include these records in the next regular submission. Options: either flag those that had been submitted or use the discharge transaction date associated with foster care element #56. Program Code - Subsequent 1) Modify the program selection code to identify only the information that was in existence at the time of the adoption.	Code-R files 1) 11/2015 Code-S files 1) 11/2015

15	The title IV-E agency extracts all records based on the transaction date of discharge (foster care element #57) or the date of latest removal (foster care element #21), if the child has not been discharged. (ACYF-PI-CB-95-09, Reissued May 23, 1995 and Technical Bulletin #6, AFCARS Data Extraction)	2	Program Code mwfstodz The extraction code contains comments to the effect that transaction dates are used for the extraction if they are present and if not, then the custody begin and end dates are used. However, the logic to set the work dates to the custody transaction dates is commented out and the dates are populated only with the in-custody date and the custody end date.	Program Code 1) Modify the program code to only use the system-generated transaction date associated with the date the caseworker entered the date of discharge.	Code 1) 11/2015
21	General Data Quality For data to be considered "quality" it must be accurate, complete, timely, and consistent in definition and usage across the entire IV-E agency and State/Tribal service area. The quality of the AFCARS data is assessed by the agency on a regular and continuous basis in order to sustain a high level of quality data. The agency incorporates AFCARS data into its quality assurance/continuous quality improvement plan. The agency involves staff from every level of the organization, and other stakeholders from outside of the agency.	3	Mississippi has had issues with the collection/reporting of AFCARS data. The State has received detailed AFCARS TA from the NRC-CWDT, as well as TA on managing and analyzing data. The State is making progress towards incorporating changes to become compliant with AFCARS. The State has shown a commitment to the CQI process and CQI staff participated in the AAR. The agency needs to continue building upon what it has started as well as integrating AFCARS tools presented during the review into its CQI process. There are several areas identified in the review of individual elements that requires additional training. One of the findings from the case file review is the inconsistent use of some fields and dates. The agency needs to ensure that all data fields are used consistently in order to have reliable and comparable data.	1) Describe, develop, and implement a method to ensure the accurate and timely entry of the AFCARS data; including but not limited to supervisory oversight and management reports. 1a) In the above plan, address how supervisors ensure accurate data entry. 2) Describe how the agency will monitor the accuracy of AFCARS data, including completeness of the data and timely entry of the data, over time.		MS, 8/2014 : Data quality will also be an ongoing training effort with the current practice and SACWIS and the developing SACWIS. 1a) MS, 5/2015 : Supervisors review cases at case openings and defined intervals to ensure all data are entered timely and accurately such as at the time of development of the FSP (Family Service Plan), SAR (Supervisory Administrative Review), and county conferences. Additionally, cases are reviewed for data accuracy prior to case closure. The most noted foster care and adoption errors are found in the AFCARS User Guide that is accessible to all caseworkers and supervisors to use as a tool to review and correct AFCARS data entry errors. 2) The CQI Unit requests AFCARS trial run files routinely from MIS to examine all data elements. From those trial runs, AFCARS exception reports (and charts) are created and are used to identify problematic errors, monitor the case worker's timely entries of data, analyze

System related training should occur on a regular basis. There were cases that were in the review sample that demonstrates a need for increased consistent QA review of the information entered into the system. Data reported to AFCARS in some instances did not properly reflect policy/practice. There needs to be increased supervisory oversight and monitoring to ensure the information entered into MACWIS is done in a timely manner and accurately reflects the activities of the case. There also is not a regular process in place to audit for duplicate cases. It was noted that a case may have been open for some time under two different record numbers before it discovered. The State team also indicated it to be difficult to merge the data once that much time had elapsed and know which record contains the correct information. The State needs to make better use of the AFCARS frequency report in conjunction with the AFCARS Data Quality Utility. The agency also needs to develop more management reports that provide information on AFCARS and if the	3) Describe how the title IV-E agency utilizes management reports and the data in its analyses. Provide brief examples. 4) Describe how the agency will incorporate the information collected in AFCARS as part of its monitoring and quality assurance process in order to ensure accuracy of the data. 5) Include system and importance of data quality training in the agency's training for staff and include in the State's training plan (in the State's title IV-B, Child and Family Services Plan and Annual Progress and Services Report). 5a) What ongoing training exists for caseworkers regarding the information system?		and target errors from raw data along with trends. From these analyses, trends of data entry errors are identified and management as well as county staff is notified via emails and one on one contact with caseworkers and supervisors. The exception reports are posted internally weekly and/or monthly for all users to access. 3) The CQI Unit analyzes trial run exception reports biweekly and monthly to determine and assess data inaccuracies. Upon completion of analysis, caseworkers and/supervisors are contacted for corrective action. Example: If an element has any data quality errors, including missing data, the CQI Unit will provide a report that identifies the region/county along with the caseworker's name and their supervisor's name to management. Corrective action is implemented for compliance before the data submission to ACF. An example of such a report is records missing case plan goal (FSP) and missing placements. 4) The CQI unit will continue to analyze AFCARS raw data and provide trend analysis to management and county staff. The CQI unit will also continue to guide users on understanding AFCARS with the use of the AFCARS User Guide. 5) This information will be included in the APSR. To ensure the accuracy of the data, the Training Unit will continue to incorporate AFCARS introduction/training for new caseworkers going through child

AFCARS data should also be part of an ongoing CQI process both for data quality but also as part of the data used to measure the effectiveness of the state's programs. In general, the State is not defaulting to a valid AFCARS value when no information was entered into the system. There are a couple elements though that do have a default that must be corrected. Consider using terminology other than "unable to determine." Additionally, there were some elements (specifically the diagnosed conditions) that require a system modification as well as an extraction code change.			welfare professional development. 5a) At this time, ongoing training methods of AFCARS are being discussed and will be developed.

Specifically, it includes	3	The State did operate a system prior to implementing Mississippi Automated Child Welfare Information System (MACWIS). Based on technical assistance provided by the NRC-CWDT in September, 2007 there were continuing issues with conversion from the legacy system to MACWIS. If no removal history is found, the total number of removals is set to one. Program Code: The Federal team's findings were similar to those of the NRC-CWDT's. The extraction code frequently references a table named AFCARS prior history. This table is referred to in at least one program comment as "legacy" data. The information as to whether the child was previously adopted is one of these elements. Also, removal episodes were not converted and are stored in the table. The agency intends to develop a new statewide case management information system. 4 - Private Agency Adoptions	TBD	There is information that is required in the adoption element file that the agency is not collecting on children adopted through a private agency (excluding those under contract with the State). The agency will need to develop a means to ensure this information is obtained from the private agency and recorded in MACWIS. The rating factors do not reflect this finding. This will be a task in the agency's adoption element improvement plan. Elements will be re-evaluated during the Improvement Plan Phase and the ratings changed based on changes that are required to the system. The relatives were also a foster parents. AD31 Case File Review Findings: There were 2 records that did not match what was reported to AFCARS. The response should have “applies” instead of “does not apply.” In one case none of the relationships were marked as being applicable (the foster parent was not related to the child as well). In the other case, the foster parent was also a relative of the child. AD32 Case File Review Findings: There were 16 records that did not match what was reported to AFCARS.	fields. 2) Modify the extraction routine to report all relationships that are applicable.
